106 commission as otherwise allowable by law, and to order restorative justice methods, when 107 applicable.

108 9. If the imposition or execution of a sentence is suspended, the court may order any 109 or all of the following restorative justice methods, or any other method that the court finds
110 just or appropriate:

111 (1) Restitution to any victim or a statutorily created fund for costs incurred as a result
112 of the offender's actions;

113 (2) Offender treatment programs;

114 (3) Mandatory community service;

115 (4) Work release programs in local facilities; and

124 created by ordinance or resolution of a county of the state of Missouri prior to sentencing. A
125 judge shall not have any direct supervisory authority or administrative control over any fund
126 to which the judge is ordering a person to make payment.

127 12. A person who fails to make a payment to a county law enforcement restitution
128 fund may not have his or her probation revoked solely for failing to make such payment 129 unless the judge, after evidentiary hearing, makes a finding supported by a preponderance of 130 the evidence that the person either willfully refused to make the payment or that the person
131 willfully, intentionally, and purposefully failed to make sufficient bona fide efforts to acquire 132 the resources to pay.

133 13. Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow the sentencing advisory 134 commission to issue recommended sentences in specific cases pending in the courts of this 135 state.
